

Exhibition SEF & CISOLAR 2020

Without borders

It's autumn, and many entrepreneurs like you realize that freezing businesses indefinitely is not the way out. The way out is in new decisions and moving forward.

The legislation governing the activities of supermarkets applies to exhibitions.

The exhibition will take place on October 21-22 in compliance with anti-security codes and regulations.

Get a ticket to the virtual exhibition for FREE and get acquainted with the solutions and the latest products in the market of renewable energy and new energy technologies, interact with company representatives at online stands and schedule video meetings in one click.
